Lyon, France

Both a major European city and capital of the Rhône-Alpes region, Lyon is France's second largest city, with over 1.2 million inhabitants. It attracts large numbers of visitors throughout the year for business and tourism. Ideally located between Northern and Southern Europe, Lyon has always been a major crossroads for exchange of all kinds. Two thousand years of history have left their mark on the cityscape, from the most ancient of roman ruins to the most modern of architectures. Lyon's heritage reflects many different eras and tells the rich tale of a city that continues to evolve and change. Lyon received the status of World Heritage city in 1998.

About Lyon Bleu International

Lyon Bleu International is a private school, which has offered French language courses since 1999 in the heart of the city of Lyon.

Located in France's second largest city, our school offers a harmonious and convivial environment for French language courses, a stone's throw from the historical centre of Lyon on one side and the business district on the other, in a stylish and lively neighbourhood with numerous choices of public transport.
